

As of 7 June 2017

ASEAN HIGH-LEVEL POLICY DIALOGUE ON WOMEN MIGRANT WORKER IN THE ASEAN ECONOMIC COMMUNITY (AEC)

7 JULY 2017, JAKARTA, INDONESIA

PROVISIONAL AGENDA

08.30 am	Registration
09.00 am	Opening Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Welcoming Remarks by Secretary General of Ministry of Manpower of Indonesia - Remarks by H.E. Jane Duke, Australian Ambassador to ASEAN - Remarks by the representative of UN Women - Remarks by the representative of FES - Remarks by the H.E. Vongthep Arthakaivavatee, Deputy Secretary-General for ASCC, the ASEAN Secretariat - Opening Remarks and Keynotes address by the Honorable Ministry of Manpower of Indonesia
09.45 am	Launch of the Study Report on Women Migrant Workers in ASEAN Economic Community Photo Session Refreshment
10.30 am	Session One: Discussion lead by Department of Labour and Employment of the Philippines Does the Priority Integration Sector (PIS) promote employment opportunities, decent work conditions and skills development for migrant women workers? Resource person: Dr. Andreea Torre, UN Women Expert <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. From manufacturing sector perspective, experience sharing by Indonesia 2. From construction sector perspective, experience sharing by Thailand
11.30 am	Exchange of views
12.00 am	Lunch
01.30 pm	Session Two: Discussion lead by Ministry of Manpower Indonesia Does the formation of AEC create opportunities or exacerbate challenges to migrant women workers? Resource person: Dr. Andreea Torre, UN Women Expert <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. From household sector perspective, experience sharing by the Philippines and Singapore 2. From agriculture sector perspective, experience sharing by Cambodia and Malaysia
03.00 pm	Refreshment
03.30 pm	Exchange of views
04.30 pm	Conclusion by Dr. Andreea Torre, UN Women Expert: salient points arising from the discussions
04.45 pm	Closing Session <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Closing Remarks by Permanent Secretary of Ministry of Manpower of Indonesia
05.00 pm	End of Inter Pillar Policy Dialogue