

Expert Roundtable: Justice for Women, Justice for All - Reimagine Justice

30 June 2022 – 11:00 AM – 12:30 PM UTC+0.07 (Bangkok time)

Join us! Zoom webinar registration

AGENDA: Justice for Women, Justice for All - Reimagine Justice

11.00-11.05	Opening remarks	SIDA
-------------	-----------------	------

Introduction: A regional and global approach to Justice for Women, Justice for All

11.05-11.10	Women's Access to Justice in Asia-Pacific	UN Women Doreen Buettner Access to Justice Specialists, UN Women Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific
-------------	---	--

11.10-11.15	The Global Justice Coalition	Pathfinders for Justice Swati Mehta Senior Program Officer
-------------	------------------------------	---

Session 1: Does it have to be adversarial?

11.15-11.30	Gender equality and mediation. Examining the shift from adversarial justice to mediation as an indigenous form of conciliatory justice. With a focus on family law, Docras explores the long-term benefits of non-adversarial mechanism for women and their families.	 Dorcas Quek Anderson Assistant Professor of Law, Associate Dean, Yong Pung How School of Law, Singapore
-------------	--	---

Session 2: Does it have be physical?

11.30-11.45	People-centered Online Dispute Resolutions. The aim of Online Dispute Resolution (ODR) is to utilize technology to help people resolve their disputes efficiently, easy, and inexpensive. Looking at the history, and with a close eye on women's access to	 Chittu Nagarajan Co-founder CREKODR and Founder ODR.com President ICODR.org Past: Co-founder Morris.com
-------------	--	--

justice, Chittu explores how ODR can ensure a people-centered approach to provide justice for all.

Session 3: How can social entrepreneurship advance justice?

11.45-
12.00

Young women, entrepreneurship and justice.

Closing the global justice gap requires innovation. Placing women at the heart of innovation to provide justice for all, reflection on young women, social entrepreneurship, and the importance of reimagining justice.

Kanan Dhru

Social Entrepreneur Founder, Research Foundation for Governance in India (RFGI), LawToons, LawForMe, Justice Innovation Advisor at HiL.

Q&A (moderated by UNDP & UN Women)

12.20-
12.30

Summary and closing meeting

UNDP

Nicholas Booth

Governance and Peacebuilding Team
Leader Bangkok Regional Hub