Georgia	00124735	National Study on Violence against Women in Georgia	National Statistics Office of Georgia	01 Apr 2022	28 Apr 2023	30 Sep 2023	In the framework of the EU-supported project Unite to Fight Violence against Women (ENI/2016/358891), UN Women in partnership with GEOSTAT carried out the National Study on Violence against Women in Georgia in 2017. In order to track progress towards the achievement of relevant SDG targets on a regular basis and to meet the data collection obligation deriving from the Istanbul Convention under Article 11 (Data Collection and Research), it is recommended that studies are carried out every five to seven years. Based on this, under UN Women's EU supported action Ending Violence Against Women and Girls in Georgia (EVAWGG) a follow-up national study on violence against women is to be carried out in 2022, five years after the original 2017 study was conducted.	116,189.76
