Call Opens:	29 th of January 2024
Deadline for Submissions:	22 nd of March 2024
Send Application package to:	WPHFapplications@unwomen.org

1. Objectives and Purpose of the Call for Proposals

The overall purpose of this call for proposals is to provide grants to local civil society organizations in the Philippines focused on the increased meaningful participation and decision-making of women in conflict prevention processes and response in conflict and humanitarian contexts with local women and young women's rights organizations. The call for proposals specifically contributes to WPHF's overall goal of contributing to peaceful and gender equal societies.

Initiatives should aim to reach those women and girls experiencing multiple and intersecting forms of discrimination, such as those excluded due to geography, ethnicity, disability, sexual orientation, age, migratory status, HIV status, among others and which is in alignment with the 2030 Agenda and the principle of leaving no one behind.

2. Country Context Linked to Call for Proposals

The Philippines has a robust framework for Women, Peace, and Security (WPS). In 2010, it became the first Asian nation to launch a National Action Plan on WPS. The fourth Philippine National Action Plan on WPS (2023-2033) and the third Bangsamoro Autonomous Region for Muslim Mindanao (BARMM) Regional Action Plan were launched in the last quarter of 2023, providing a robust outline, on women's protection and leadership during crises, with new guidance on gender in humanitarian action, and climate security intersections. Moreover, women were significantly engaged in the Government of the Philippines and Moro Islamic Liberation Front peace talks, yielding gender-oriented provisions under the first female chief peace negotiator. Yet challenges persist, such as women's limited involvement in the peace mechanisms implementing the peace agreement particularly security reform and governance, slow transitional justice progress, prevailing violence, impunity, and patriarchal attitudes.

In BARMM, women's needs aren't fully integrated into governance agenda, warranting community-level input for change, gender and development budgeting and guarantees of gender quota in governance bodies; beyond BARMM, sustained support is essential for women's conflict prevention and peacebuilding efforts, amid communal tensions, conflicts, and pandemic-related challenges. In addition, anti-terrorism actions, conflicts, and the pandemic have disproportionately affected women and women-led groups.

While progress has been made toward meaningful and lasting peace in the Philippines, the country is at a critical juncture with regards to the end of the transitional phase in the BARMM which will be determined by hotly contested parliamentary elections in 2025 and potentially, the exit agreement of the peace process. The implementation of the WPHF Phase 1 in 2021-23 highlighted the necessity to continue addressing the gender gaps in the normalization track of the peace agreement, sustaining the economic empowerment of grassroots women peacebuilders and enhancing the leadership of women in protection, conflict prevention/conflict resolution mechanisms and governance by increasing the number of registered women-led CBOs inter alia, in order for the gains of peace process and the WPS agenda to be sustained. In addition, rigorous actions to establish and sustain conflict prevention initiatives in fragile areas are needed to engender a culture of trust, contain violence, and ensure that life-saving services are delivered during crisis.

About the Women's Peace and Humanitarian Fund (WPHF)

The WPHF is a global pooled funding mechanism which aims to stimulate a significant increase in financing for women's participation, leadership, and empowerment in peace and security processes and humanitarian response. The WPHF is a flexible and rapid financing mechanism. It supports quality interventions designed to enhance the capacity of local women to prevent conflict, respond to crises and emergencies, and seize key peacebuilding opportunities. The overall goal of the WPHF's theory of change is to contribute to peaceful and gender equal societies. Achievement of this goal will require that women are empowered to participate in, contribute to, and benefit from conflict prevention, crisis response, peacebuilding, and recovery. Since its launch in 2016, WPHF has been supporting over 1,200 civil society organizations and is present in 44 countries.

The WPHF is governed by a Funding Board at the global level, which is comprised of four UN entities (currently UN Women, UNHCR, UNFPA and PBSO), four donor Member States (currently Austria, United Kingdom, Germany, and the United States), as well as 4 Civil Society Organizations (currently Feminist Humanitarian Network, Kvinna till Kvinna, Action Aid and Women's Refugee Commission).

At the country level, the final selection of shortlisted proposals will be undertaken by a National Steering Committee, which is comprised of UN agencies, civil society organizations, donor representatives and governments.
