

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

Multi-Country Study Launch:

The Trial of Rape: Understanding the criminal justice system response to sexual violence in Thailand and Viet Nam

29 November 2017

Dusit Thani Hotel, Bangkok, Thailand

| TIME                     | Agenda Item  | Speaker   |
|--------------------------|--|---|
| 10:00 am                 | Arrival and Registration  |   |
| 10:30-10:40(10mins)  | Opening remarks and keynote address <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Presentation of key findings from the report</li><li>• Putting the findings into action: linkages with ongoing initiatives</li><li>• Linkages and opportunities for legislative and policy changes</li><li>• Forward looking messages and recommendations</li></ul>   | Keynote speaker:Dr. Kittipong Kittayarak , Executive Director of Thailand Institute of JusticePresentation on findings:Ms. Anna-Karin Jatfors , Deputy Regional Director, UN Women Regional Office for Asia and the Pacific   |
| 10:40-11:10(30 mins) | Panel discussion with justice experts from Viet Nam and Thailand and UN agenciesQuestions for the panels: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• How is the justice system acting to address the issues identified in the study?</li><li>• How will the recommendations be taken into account?</li><li>• A study finding is that “gender transformative work is needed to transform bias against women”-what opportunities do you see for this in your countries?</li><li>• How we can change the social norms.</li></ul> | Moderator: Mr. Nick Booth , Programme Advisor, UNDP Bangkok Regional HubPanel list: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Ms Nguyen Thi Kim Thoa, Director General, Criminal and Administrative Law Department, Ministry of Justice Viet Nam</li><li>• Ms. Le Thi Van Anh, Director of Criminal Law Division, Criminal and Administrative Law Department, MOJ</li><li>• Dr. Suntariya Muanpawong, Chief Judge in the Research Justice Division, The Supreme Court of Thailand</li><li>• Eileen Skinnider, Lead Researcher</li></ul> |

Empowered lives.
Resilient nations.

| TIME                   | Agenda Item   | Speaker   |
|------------------------|---|---|
| 11:10-11:3020 mins | Q&amp;A with mediaRespondents:Ms. Nguyen Thi Kim ThoaMs. Le Thi Van AnhDr. Suntariya MuanpawongMs. Eileen SkinniderMs. Anna-Karin JatforsMr. Nick BoothMs. Claudia Baroni | Facilitator: Ms. Melissa Alvarado , Ending Violence against Women Specialist/UNiTE Programme Manager |
| 11:30-11:4010 mins | Closing remarks  | Ms. Claudia Baroni , Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice Officer                                   |
| 11:40-13:30            | Lunch  |   |