

Generation Equality Forum:
Why Invest in Feminist
Movements and Leadership?

Open societies are gender just societies.

Our mission to promote and defend inclusive, vibrant democracies and rights-based protection cannot succeed without robust feminist leadership and the movements that are on the frontlines of rising authoritarianism.

Commitments include new investments to:

Build transformative feminist political leadership:

- Dedicated funding to explicitly invest in putting more women in positions of leadership in politics and governance while also investing in keeping them there.
 - Strengthen feminist leadership in Peace and Security
 - Strengthen and resource inclusive movements and leadership
 - Strengthen Global Infrastructure for Progressive Multilateralism - especially to combat anti-gender and anti-rights movements
