ACTION COALITION ON ECONOMIC JUSTICE AND RIGHTS

LEADERSHIP STRUCTURE
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>WHY ECONOMIC JUSTICE &amp; RIGHTS?</th>
<th>WHAT NEEDS TO CHANGE?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Economic justice and rights affects all women and girls globally, yet the current economic system does not work for women and girls.</td>
<td>Women spend triple the amount of time as men performing unpaid care and domestic work and their social production continues to subsidize the entire economy. Data shows that COVID-19 is intensifying women’s workloads at home, and nearly half of all women with children at home spend more than 5 hours each day in childcare.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>It refers to how economic and political systems are designed, how their benefits or costs are distributed, and how institutions are held accountable for the economic outcomes they generate.</td>
<td>The labor market is highly segmented along gendered lines. The gender gap in labor force participation has not shifted in 30 years and has stagnated at 31 percent. Using 2019 data, the gender pay gap remains at 16-22 percent globally.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Today, 740 million women globally work in the informal sector, where job insecurity, low earnings and harsh working conditions and hours are prevalent.</td>
<td>Economic fallout of COVID predicts that 47 million more women will fall into EXTREME poverty. Women occupy most of the jobs in the hardest hit economic sectors, are more likely to lose their jobs compared to men and are overrepresented on the frontlines as 70% of the world’s healthcare workforce.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Structural inequalities begin before women enter the world of work. Young women (ages 15-29) are 3 times more likely to be outside the labor force and not in school than young men.</td>
<td>While 71 percent of the world’s population lacks access to social protection, women are particularly disadvantaged in social protection systems, experiencing lower coverage rates and substantially lower benefit levels.</td>

VISION

By 2026, economic justice and rights are guaranteed for women and girls, in all their diversity, including for adolescent girls, as for men and boys.

Systems and structures are gender-responsive and ensure equitable, secure access to resources, services and decision-making; participation in gender-transformative enterprise and trade; promotion of non-discriminatory labour markets, free of violence and harassment; a care economy that equitably shares and values care and domestic work; and resilience to economic shocks such as the COVID-19 pandemic.
