What do you think is the most critical action point for facilitating economic justice and rights in your country?

1st: Promote gender transformative economies and economic stimulus, through quality social protection system

2nd: Increase women’s economic empowerment by transforming the care economy

3rd: Increase women’s access to and control over productive resources

4th: Create an enabling legal and policy framework to expand decent work and employment in formal and informal economies