EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR VISITS THE PHILIPPINES

United Nations Under-Secretary-General and Executive Director of UN Women, Phumzile Mlambo-Ngcuka, visited the Philippines to promote gender equality and women's rights within a regional context. During her visit, the Executive Director announced ADB and UN Women will work together on a collaborative study to track the progress of Asia and the Pacific in realizing gender equality. Her mission included meetings with members of the Department of Foreign Affairs (DFA) and the Philippine Commission on Women (PCW).

During her visit to Quezon City, the Executive Director welcomed the city to UN Women's Safe Cities Global Initiative. She also had the opportunity to meet members of the civil society and reiterate UN Women's disposition and willingness to continue working together for gender equality. Lastly, Mlambo-Ngcuka participated in the event "Economies that Work for Women" which highlighted key messages from UN Women's flagship report "Progress of the World's Women: Transforming Economies, Realizing Rights". WOMEN AND THE SDG's

Women and girls make up more than half the world's population — and they are on the frontlines — often more deeply impacted than men and boys by poverty, climate change, food insecurity, lack of healthcare, and global economic crises. Their contributions and leadership are central to finding a solution.

With the new global 2030 roadmap and Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), we take a look at how women are affected by each of the 17 proposed SDGs, as well as how women and girls can — and will — be key to achieving each of these goals. Read more...

WHY GENDER EQUALITY IS THE MOST CRITICAL OF ALL THE GLOBAL GOALS?

“We know now that without gender equality and a full role for women in society, in the economy, in governance, we will not be able to achieve the world we hoped for. These are the changes for which governments have repeatedly signed their support, with international protocols on non-discrimination, and on different aspects of rights and global goods. To date, that support has not been felt all the way through society; consequently results have fallen short of aspiration.”
